- Notes :
- i) Interest is calculated on Monthly Running Balance @ 8.50%. Employee Opening Balance = Employee Balance + VPF Balance
  - ii) In case of discrepancy, please notify to _____ within 15 days of receipt.
  - iii) The balances shown are pre-audit figures. The figures may change subject to audit.
  - iv) In case of change in nominee, please fill revised nomination form and submit to HR department.
  - v) The contribution shown against April to March is for the Wage period: April to March.
  - vi) The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, Bench 'B', Bangalore has in the matter of the Assistant Commissioner of Income Tax v/s. Shri Dilip Ranjrekar passed an order dated 10th November, 2017, as per which, the interest earned by the employee from the date of resignation/retirement till the date of settlement is taxable. However, Tribunal of other States have not taken this view, but in case in future they take the same view, TDS will be deducted on Interest earned after separation and will be recovered from the employee.
